Keeping Watch in Advent

Resolutions for this Advent:
Prayer. More intimate, more profound. Frequent holy Communion. Meditation.
Penance. In a spirit of reparation. Self-denial sought and offered up. Completely hidden, done for God alone.
Charity. More lively, more self-forgetful, more spiritual. May the exterior be more attractive, more gentle toward all, in proportion as there is more interior detachment....
Greater efforts than ever to remove from my heart and conceal from others the hurt caused by many people's hostility to, ignorance of, and contempt for my faith. To offer up these frequent and painful stings, which sometimes strike to the quick, for the benefit of those who inflict them, for others, in a spirit of reparation.
Never to betray the confidence that another has entrusted....
In work for others, be vigilant against all pride and egotism.
Not to forget that I am only the simple intermediary between God and others, the dull instrument Providence uses, and that my role consists in perfecting this instrument, for which I still need grace.
