Summer Time

After a long delay, summer finally arrived this week. Thank God for the beautiful sunshine and warmth to chase away the rain and the cold for a while. Because of the Olympic Games we will not change the Sunday Mass schedule in July and August this year. The city is expecting many more visitors this summer and we want to welcome as many as possible to our Church on Sunday mornings for Mass.

This is the last of the usual Weekly Bulletins and I want to take the opportunity to wish you all a wonderful summer with plenty of time to relax with family and friends. For those of you who will be in Paris for the Games, as the time approaches there will be a special Bulletin to give you the latest information and guidance with regards to transport and any special activities or events at the Church for this special time.

The whole city will be in festive mood to welcome the many athletes and others. Paris will create an environment where people from all over the world can feel welcome and at home. This year's Games are of particular significance in bringing people and nations together at a time when there are wars and rumours of war. The Games symbolise the fundamental unity of all people and the desire to live and play together in peace. Let's hope that the experience of togetherness in Paris will sow the seeds of a new era of peace in the world.
