The Word in other words

We Catholics are united with all other Christians in our love and reverence for the Bible. The Bible is referred as the Sacred Scriptures and the Word of God. It is no ordinary book but has a unique authority among us as the inspired expression of God's love for us and his plan of salvation.

Of course, the Bible is not really a book but a collection of many books that have been collected into the volume we know as the Bible. These books were composed at different times, by different authors, and for a variety of different reasons and purposes. The people of God, first the Jewish people followed by the Christian community, have recognised the power of these sacred words to instruct and guide, to touch and transform our lives.

We have all felt the divine power acting on us through the words of the Bible.

The many words of the Bible have their origin, meaning, and purpose in the one great Word, the Son of God made man. Through these words, we can encounter, hear, know, and love the One Lord who is the original speaker of these words.

The time and effort we devote to reading, studying and understanding the Bible will be rewarded with a deeper knowledge and love of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. He is the Word that resounds through all the words of the Bible.
