The Mystery of His Mercy

O my merciful Lord, there are secrets in my heart which no one knows or will ever know except you because, even if I wanted to reveal them, no one would understand me. Your minister knows some because I confess to him, but he knows only the bit of these mysteries that I am capable of revealing; the rest remains between us for eternity, O my Lord!

You have covered me with the cloak of your mercy, pardoning my sins. Not once did you refuse your pardon; you always had pity on me, giving me a new life of grace. To prevent doubts, you have entrusted me to the loving care of your Church, that tender mother, who in your name assures me of the truths of faith and watches lest I wander. Especially in the tribunal of your mercy does my soul meet an ocean of favours....

Jesus, there is one more secret in my life, the deepest and dearest to my heart: it is you yourself when you come to my heart under the appearance of bread. Herein lies the whole secret of my sanctity. Here my heart is so united with yours as to be but one. There are no more secrets, because all that is yours is mine, and all that is mine is yours. Such is the omnipotence and the miracle of your mercy.
