ORDER OF MALTA NATIONAL FUNDRAISING WEEKEND : DOOR COLLECTION

Sought and Invited by the King

You would not seek Christ or love him unless you had first been sought and loved.... For the love is the reason for the search, and the search is the fruit of the love, and its certain proof. You are loved so that you may not suppose you are sought to be punished. You are sought so that you may not complain you are loved in vain. Both these loving and manifest favours give you courage, and drive away your diffidence, persuading you to return, and stirring your affections. From this comes the zeal and ardour to seek him whom your soul loves, because you cannot seek unless you are sought, and when you are sought you cannot but seek....

One who is loved has nothing to fear. Let those fear who do not love; they must always live in fear of retribution. Since I love, I cannot doubt that I am loved, any more than I can doubt that I love. Nor can I fear to look on his face, since I have sensed his tenderness. In what have I known it? In this—not only has he sought me as I am, but he has shown me tenderness, and caused me to seek him with confidence....

How can he be angry with me for seeking him, when he overlooked the contempt I showed for him? He will not drive away someone who seeks him, when he sought someone who spurned him. The spirit of the Word is gentle, and brings me gentle greetings.... How can I fail to be inspired to seek him, when I have experienced his mercy and been assured of his peace?
